FOR PRESIDENT.
That uncrowned King of every Democratic heart,

SAMUEL J. TILDEN.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT,
Mr. Tilden's companion in Victory and in Humiliation,

THOMAS A. HENDRICKS.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

Richard Held, of Mt. Sterling, is a candidate for Judge of the Court of Appeals, to succeed Judge Hargis—subject to the action of the Democracy of the First Appellate District.

SECRETARY FOLGER, it is said, will recommend the repeal of the one per cent tax on bank circulation.

FRANK McCARLEY has been arrested at Franklin, for burning a country hotel to get the insurance money.

THERE is 'nothing in all this talk of John Kelly retiring from politics. John is not of a retiring disposition.

EVERYTHING points to the election of Randall for Speaker and the nomination of Tilden for President.—[Louisville Post.

THE Ohio agricultural report says there have been but four seasons in thirty-five years when the yield of corn was as small as it is this year.

THE Supreme Court of Pennsylvania has decided that sleeping-car companies are responsible for goods lost by their sleeping passengers.

EIGHT convicts were sent to the penitentiary by a late term of the Hardin Circuit Court, five of this number confessing their guilt without trial.

A PAIR of mill-stones, brought from Pennsylvania over a hundred years ago, are in use in a mill in Hardin county, and are in first-class condition.

THE Breckinridge News gives a list of thirty murders that were committed in Kentucky during October, which is an increase of three over the number committed in September.

GEN. BUTLER says he is quite sure Massachusetts can be counted on for the Democratic Presidential candidate next year. His vote this year was 15,000 larger than it was last year.

THE editor of the Mt. Olivet Democrat says that he has received five hundred threeshings during the last three months, when he was not present. That's the way with all good editors.

ENGLAND should not attempt any such nonsense as the sending of the Prince of Wales through Ireland as a royal mediator. What most of the poor Irish people need is potatoes and not princes.

HEREAFTER the retail sale of intoxicating liquors on credit in Prussia will be punished by withdrawal of license. The saloon-keepers in Kentucky—particularly at Paris, would not object to such a law.

THE New York Times the great organ of the Republican party brands the Mahone faction as the most impudent and corrupt coalition of modern politics, and the most insolent and tyrannical branch of political machinery.

SECRETARY LINCOLN will decline the second place on the ticket with Arthur, and then it will be Col. Swope. This will be Arthur's only bid for the South, and it will be of no avail—the ticket will be badly snowed under.

CHESTER ARTHUR, the American child of fortune, and the sage who is not to be found when mistakes could possibly be forced upon him, appears to-day to be a better horse than ever to back for the next Presidential race.—[St. Louis Chronicle.

THE first meeting of the American Catholic Bishops was held at Rome Tuesday. The principal question discussed was that of addressing a demand to the Government of the United States that the relations of the Church and State be based upon the canon law.

THE Danville Tribune addressed letters to one hundred prominent Republicans asking who they were for in 1884 for President and Vice President. Of 47 replies received Arthur leads in the choice for President and Lincoln for Vice President.

HON. WILLIAM E. RUSSELL, of Lebanon, Supreme President of the Catholic Knights of America, was brutally assaulted in Cincinnati Saturday night by a gang of ruffians, who attempted to rob him. He was struck upon the head and painfully injured.

COMPLAINT is made regarding the postal notes that the color of the face is of two shades of yellow, while the back is shade of green. The combination affects the eyes badly, and two cases have been reported where clerks have been temporarily incapacitated for service by the strain.

The Cincinnati Enquirer in a lengthy editorial in favor of the old ticket of Tilden and Hendricks, says: The "old ticket" has a spontaneous strength which is almost marvelous, and the time is past for treating it lightly or putting it down with sneers. No organization in its behalf is visible, but still it has a power with the people. With the brilliant prospect of a Democratic victory next year comes a renewal of the disposition to vindicate the men who were elected in 1876, but were cheated out of their offices. The fraud still rankles in the breasts of the people. The failure to elect the Democratic candidates in 1880, by a narrow margin, did not help to soften the Democratic heart to the national rascality of four years before. The "old ticket" appears to be stronger now than it was seven months before the Democratic National Convention of 1880. The most outrageous and absurd reports as to the physical condition of Mr. Tilden have failed to lessen his following; and even if the worst reports as to his health could be justified, there are thousands of Democrats who would rather have an invalid Executive than to permit the Presidential election to pass without placing the greatest emphasis possible, on the greatest outrage on popular elections in the history of Republican Governments.

An eminent physician down South has successfully vaccinated five men against yellow fever. The next thing we expect to hear of some fellow vaccinating against cholera, itch and other bad debts.

MILLERSBURG.

Col. Thos. Matthews was in town yesterday.

W. H. H. Johnson and wife have returned Missouri.

Ben Thompson has refused $2,000 for ten acres of his tobacco.

Loafers do not heed the sign "No Loafers Wanted," at our depot.

Tom Wadell is clerking for Ambs & Brockington in their restaurant.

A Carlisle lady says that "Brother Bear" writes like what he didn't know was torn out.

Mrs. Biddle and eight of her children have the measles, at the Dodson place up town.

W. B. Adams, of this city, was made assistant secretary at the Young Men's Christian Association Convention at Lexington.

A Carlisle lady sleeps with a hot lamp chimney next to her feet these cold nights.

It is hard for a Richard to come down to a shoe bench, but he says there's where he's going.

Stephen B. Corrington, merchant at Hot Springs, Ark., is here visiting his father who is no better.

Persons gorging themselves at Ambs & Brockington's restaurant, will be treated free of charge, by the Dr.

Who was that up-town widow who refused to loan her flowers for the decoration of the Methodist Church, on wedding day?

Dr. Hurst was awarded the pauper practice of this precinct yesterday, for $200 per annum; Dr. Smith bidding $250, and Dr. Best $300.

The people are slowly recovering from Harry Boulden's overwhelming account of the wedding, and are now looking forward for something new.

The Court of Claims on yesterday appropriated $313.50 for the construction of 1,650 feet of the Summit Station on the Zed Layson end of the line.

Josh Barton shipped 74 of the finest Short-horns in the State, and F. J. Barbee 70 very fine ones also, to Chicago, to the great sales this week and next.

Judge John A. Miller bought 15 rabbits the other day for five cents each. The darkeys are almost entirely subsisting on this "marsupial quadruped" here.

Miss Ella Fleming, before starting out on a big visit for Stony Point and Louisville, made arrangements for the News to be promptly forwarded from her boarding-house.

A Madison Turner has just returned from a visit to his parents in Rappahannock county, Va. He says that the excitement there during the election was the highest he ever saw.

They do say that the gentleman in the goods box gallery is mighty fine on a coon's picture, if the coon calls around on Sunday. He makes them look white and that's what they like.

Rev. W. B. Hayes has been returned to the Broadway Methodist Church. Presiding Elder Moses Hall was in town last week. Mr. Hayes has done a good work and his congregation was pleased to have him back again.

Ambs & Brockington bought the English Kitchen restaurant, and Dr. Brockington has succeeded Ambs in the barber business. Boden will now retire to the poetic seclusion of his former days—making shoes and quoting Shakespeare.

One or two Benedicts have on more than one occasion, come to headquarters with little mean things they want published "just to make the old woman mad; you know." If it was not for the fact that they are very weak, bald-headed Benedicts, their names would be published so that their wives could handsomely black their eyes.

A man calling himself Mason, forged an order from J. H. Boulden, on J. G. Allen, for goods amounting to $23, stating that it was the balance on a note sold to Mr. Boulden. Allen accepted the order and rigged the man out in a suit including boots. But the man, Oh, where is he? The last heard from him he was about three miles beyond the Blue Licks.

"B'ER WOLFE."

POSTED—Notice is hereby given that I posted my farm, adjoining Millersburg, according to all the forms of law, and all persons are forbidden to hunt or fish or trespass in any way on said farm. I will enforce the law against all offenders—WHITE and BLACK.
Oct. 17th 1883. ALEX. MCCLINTOCK.

GEN. GRANT has decided to live permanently at Washington.

THE St. Louis Post-Dispatch says: Vanderbilt has become stoop-shouldered. Giving nickles to little beggars will put the best of us somewhat out of shape.

TWENTY thousand sheep were killed in Ohio by dogs, the past year, and it is but fair to presume that a proportionate number were killed in all the states of the Union. If the U. S. Government inflicted half the losses in way of special taxes on sheep or wool, how these self inflicted sheep-owners would howl!

JUDGE FORAKER, the great-got-left, was defeated for Governor of Ohio on Oct. 9th, on the same day previously he fell and broke his shoulder; on the same day of another year lost $100 at three-card monte; on the same day of another year he was thrown from a horse and was in a hospital for months; and lost an important lawsuit on the same day of another year.

JOHN G. CARLISLE has arrived Washington. He has eighty votes pledged him for the Speakership, and expects to receive upwards of ninety on the first ballot and to be elected. He estimates Cox's strength at the thirty-five votes and Randall's at sixty. It is claimed by the friends of Randall that the recent Democratic defeats have improved his chances.

THE Republican tactics now is to let Virginia go, and to make the campaign in New York, Indiana and Ohio on the bloody shirt and the Civil Rights bill. There's but little doubt that the alleged Supreme Court went back on the Civil Rights bill expressly for the manufacture of campaign sentiment in '84, and Bob Ingersoll has already intimated as much, by saying that the "Supreme Court may have been long-headed after all."

THE New York Tribune of the 11th, has the following: Stretch these gently out in a row. They include all the Democratic names for President. Samuel J. Tilden, Grover Cleveland, William Dorsheimer, Abram Hewitt, W. S. Hancock, Samuel J. Randall, Judge Pratt, of Brooklyn, Thomas F. Bayard, George Hoadley, H. B. Panye, George H. Pendleton, Geo. B. McClellan, Henry C. Slocum, Wm. R. Morrison, Stephen J. Field, Joseph E. McDonald, Thos. A. Hendricks, Lyman Trumbull, Allan G. Thurman, Geo. F. Stoneman. Pulverize this list and three or four probabilities will remain in it, say Tilden, Hoadley and McDonald. The more examination put on Tilden the more he will fade out. To McDonald again, as a year ago, the needle begins to flicker, and the alternative or cotenominus one may be Hoadley.

THREE Cincinnati bunko men are now located in Lexington, for the purpose of learning the hemp and tobacco men so that they can work them when they go to the city. The Press gives their names as Duval, Raynard and Jones.

Turkeys! Turkeys!!

I DESIRE to inform the turkey-raising public, that I want an unlimited number of fat, plump, corn-fed bluegrass turkeys such as I ship every season to the New York and Boston market. For such, I will pay the highest market price, delivered on foot.
oct19-17 W. W. GILL, Paris, Ky.

TURKEYS WANTED.

Having an old and well-established turkey trade in Boston and other Eastern cities, I still desire to supply their fastidious demands with the Kentucky-raised birds. I do not care whether they are corn, bluegrass or sprig-fed—just so they are fine flat birds. I will do the same by the trade this year that I have always done—pay the highest market price in cash.
I will receive and slaughter at Paris, Richmond and Flemingsburg.
